

REGISTRATION CRITERIA – Registered students (full-time/part-time) Note: Registered students remain enrolled full time with their ‘base’ school and access Tasmanian eSchool teachers and programs on a fee-for-service basis.

1. PREGNANCY REGISTRATION

A student who is pregnant, with written medical advice. Such enrolments may be extended into the post-natal period.

2. MEDICAL - PSYCHOLOGICAL REGISTRATION

Medical/Psychological Registered students remain enrolled full time with their ‘base’ school and access Tasmanian eSchool teachers and programs on a fee-for-service basis.

Students can only be registered under this criterion if they have an assessment/report from a School Psychologist, other Psychologist or Psychiatrist. Approval of the Learning Service is also required.

3. MEDICAL (OTHER) REGISTRATION

- (a) A student who has written medical advice that attendance at school is inadvisable.
- (b) A student who has a disability or need for special support.

NB: Medical enrolments must be approved by the appropriate Learning Service.

4. TRAVEL REGISTRATION

A student for whom constant travel away from home is necessary, making enrolment at a local school difficult, or where a local school is not accessible. This refers to the children of itinerant workers and the children of Tasmanian residents who are living in inaccessible areas outside the state for work reasons. Students who are involved in travel for recreational purposes for a minimum of two terms can also be enrolled.

ENROLMENT CRITERIA – Enrolled students (full-time/part-time)
